कमी नहीं है जितनी दर्शायी जा रही है । मैंने कई आंकड़े दिये कि दूध से कई चीजें बनायी जाती हैं उन पर कोई पाबन्दी नहीं है । जब इन चीजों पर पाबन्दी नहीं है तो खोये पर पाबन्दी क्यों है ? इसको तुरन्त हटाया जाना चाहिए । इसमें विलम्ब की जरूरत नहीं है। अगर केन्द्रीय सरकार दिल्ली प्रशासन पर बात छोड़ती है तो दिल्ली प्रशासन को कहा जाये कि वह सार्वजनिक हित में, जन भावना के हित में इस पाबन्दी को तुरन्त वापस ले ।

THE NAVY (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1987

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRI H. HANUMANTHAPPA): We have a small Bill, the Navy (Amendment) Bill, 1987. Mr. Minister.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENCE PRODUCTION AND SUPPLIES IN THE MINISTRY OF DEFENCE (SHRI SHIVRAJ PATIL): Sir, I beg to move:

"That the Bill further to amend the Navy Act, 1957, be taken into consideration."

All naval personnel including Artificer Apprentices are governed by the Navy Act, 1957 and the Regulations made thereunder. The existing provisions of section 11(2) of the Navy Act, 1957 permits initial enrolment of sailors for a period not longer than fifteen years including the period spent in training. The sailors, other than the Apprentices entry sailors, effectively serve for four years, the effective service of meely 14 years because they have a training period of only one year, whereas the Artificer Apprentices who from an important segment of the technical sailors in the Navy are available only for about 15 years. Since due to the nature of their duties which involve highly technical and engineering skills, they are required to undergo training for about four years, the effective service of merely 11 years presently rendered by the Apprentice sailors is too short a period considering that a heavy expenditure is being incurred by the Government in training these highly technical sailors for a period of four years. It is, therefore, intended to increase the period of initial service so that their services could be availed of for an effective period of about 15 years excluding the training period. In order to achieve this result, the ceiling of the initial engagement, as proposed in the Bill, should be enhanced. It is accordingly proposed to enhance the ceiling of the initial service prescribed in section 11(2) of the Navy Act, 1957, from 15 years to 20 years.

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRI H. HANUMANTHAPPA): Since there is no speaker, I put the question. The question is:

"That the Bill further to amend the Navy Act, 1957, be taken into consideration."

The motion was adopted.

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRI H. HANUMANTHAPPA): We shall now take up clause-by-clause consideration of the Bill.

Clause 2 was added to the Bill.

Clause 1, the Enacting Formula and the Title were added to the Bill.

SHRI SHIVRAJ PATIL: Sir, I beg to move:

"That the Bill be passed."

The question was put, and the motion adopted.
